Grab Your Crew for New Adventures

In Wisconsin, we encourage residents and visitors to wonder freely - to take what you already know and love about the area and consider: What else might you discover?

Take, for example, Peninsula State Park's Eagle Tower. In 2021, a new structure opened to give visitors with limited mobility improved access to ocean-like views of Green Bay. With an 850-foot wheelchair-accessible ramp, hikers can seamlessly transition to the treetops before finding themselves at the overlook - a view you can't leave Wisconsin without seeing.

So, here's to wandering - and wondering - toward new memories.
In Wisconsin, they're always waiting.
