

I-94 Interchange with Redford Blvd (County F) Project Summary

The Wisconsin Department of Transportation (WisDOT) is proposing to rehabilitate the County F bridges over I-94 in Waukesha County, converting them into a diverging diamond interchange.

The purpose of this project is to address operational deficiencies at the County F interchange and to extend the service life of its bridges over I-94.

Scan to visit the study website and learn about the project.

Questions? Contact:

Christine Hanna, P.E., WisDOT Project Manager
(414) 750-1555, christine.hanna@dot.wi.gov

Mary Beth Pettit, P.E., Consultant Project Manager
(414) 266-9175, marybeth.pettit@graef-usa.com